A New Aid Fable.

This is not a George Ade fable, though it may sling some slang. It is a Home Aid fable.

Once there was a Geezer, who sat around and cut Kindling too small for Cook Stove purposes. He Whittled against Time and Flabbergasted against his Town. The town was No Good, he said—strictly on the Blink. Yes, it was N. G. Why, hadn't he lived here since '84 and found that the Place was Punky? Sure, Mike!

Look at that town over in the next County. Grown like Jonah's Gourd. Must be a Jonah here. We've grown some, but I don't see that we're knocking any particularly Big Persimmons. That's the way this Gazaboo knocked his town.

One day a Sarcastic Stranger floated into the Town that was Knocked from the burg that had blossomed like Jonah's Gourd. He heard some of the Flabbergasting and Dropped to the situation.

"Look here, you," he remarked to the citizen who was Handing Out the Knocks. "What do you do for this town? Are you doing your part to put this Burg on the Upgrade? What's that hefty Bunch of Literature sticking out of your Clothes?"

"That's a Mail Order Catalogue from Chicago—a town that is a town," replied the Geezer.

"So I thought," said the Impertinent Arrival. "Now let me hand you out a nice little Wad of common sense. For the past ten years you have been sending your money to the Chicago Mail Order houses instead of spending it among your home merchants. What would have happened to Chicago fifty years ago if all the First Settlers had shipped their Loose Coin to New York on catalogue inducement? Why, you'd have to use a sand dredger now to find the Original Site of Chicago. Now, in the Burg from which I have just Blown in we got over all this Bum Business years ago. We passed Resolutions that we would trade at home and help our own town to Spread out so that you could Sight it on the map without using Opera Glasses. But you and a Bunch of other folks in this town have wasted your Substance in riotous Expenditures in Chicago by mail and let the sheriff hang out the 'Nothing Doing' sign in front of some of your own town's mercantile Emporiums. Look at our Town and then look at yours. What makes the Difference?"

Whereupon the Whittling Gazaboo threw a few well chosen Thoughts into his mental makeup and went down to the village store to Annex a linen collar in place of the Paper Circles which he had bought from Chicago at Two Bits a Box.

MORAL: If you want your town to grow, patronize home enterprises.

Local Items.

Rev Mr Abernathy will fill his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday.

We had a splendid picture of the new hotel made, but the half-tone cut did not arrive in time for this issue.

If you want high class printing, at low rates, ring up 43 and we will be at the order in less time than it takes to tell it.

The first bill introduced in the present session of the Legislature was to repeal the dog-tax law. There is much opposition to the law and it doubtless will be repealed.

The Gleaners will meet in the Library of the Lancaster High School Jan 17, at 2:30 p. m. On this date new members will be received or application for membership can be made.

The officers of the Presbyterian church have decided to replace the old furnaces with new ones, and they will be installed in a few days. The present ones have been in service since the house was built, and were the first to be used in this section of the state.

The Record's Sunday papers, Cincinnati, Louisville, Frankfort, and Lexington, came lumbering in Monday afternoon. The unseemly, careless way in which mail is sent to the Lancaster office is very aggravating, indeed.

Bank Election.

At annual election of directors, The Garrard Bank & Trust Co., re-elected its old board of directors, with the exception of Thos. Owens in place of J B Sanders and A B Brown, Jr. in place of I M Dunn. At the National Bank, the name of J L Gill was added to the list of old directors who were re-elected. The Citizens Bank re-elected its old board.

Gen Lee's Birthday.

The local chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold a celebration of the birth of Gen Robt E Lee, at the residence of Mrs F P Frisbie next Saturday afternoon. There will be a number of musical numbers and recitations, and Hon W I Williams will deliver an address upon the life of the noted soldier. The Lancaster Chapter is in a flourishing condition, and the meetings are a source of much pleasure.

Enjoyable Meeting.

The Garrard County Christian Endeavor Union, which met at local Christian church last Saturday, was greatly enjoyed by the large number of people, both young and old, who attended. The program, as published in last issue of The Record, was carried out, and each number was highly complimented. Dinner was served at noon. The C E is now thoroughly organized in Garrard county, and is doing a noble work.

Mr Fox Will Return.

The Record is delighted to announce the determination of Mr E H Fox, the photographer, to continue making his regular Saturday trips to Lancaster. He has a splendid place in which to make pictures, and uses the same instruments as in his famous Danville studio. His work in Lancaster during the several years he has been coming here has always given eminent satisfaction, and the people of Lancaster and Garrard county will be delighted to know that he has decided to continue his visits. Remember, he can do just as good work on rainy days as at any other time.

Good For Mr Helm.

Hon Harve Helm, our member of Congress, has introduced a bill to carry into effect the findings of the Court of Claims in the case of the Methodist church at Bryansville, in which findings the court decides as just the church's claim of $450 for damages done the property by the Federal soldiers during the war. Mr Helm will, of course, do all in his power to secure the passage of the bill. He is making a model congressman and will accomplish all in his power for his constituents.

Suggestion to Council.

As the new contract with the electric light people is now in force, and the lights are paid for to run until one o'clock, why wouldn't it be a good idea to put that extra hour on the afternoon instead of the dead of midnight, when everybody is, or ought to be, asleep? The days are very dark, and it is too dark to work shortly after three o'clock. The light is needed much more in afternoon, before contract time to turn them on, so why not reverse the order of things and give the merchants the benefit thereof? It would be of especial benefit in this office, where, frequently, we are compelled to use oil lamps before the electricity is turned on. Think this over, gentlemen, as we believe it will be of much benefit to the public. Chances are, come to think of it, those out after twelve o'clock don't want too much light, anyway.

LOST, Sunday evening, a solid gold barrette, hand carved, between the Methodist church and G A Evans residence. Return to Record office and receive reward.

Meeting Continues.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress at the Methodist church for some weeks, continues with interest. Notwithstanding the fact that the meeting ran through the holidays, and the weather has, most of the time, been very inclement, large congregations have listened to the earnest preaching of Rev Mr Dawson and taken part in the services. A number have united with the church, and others—members of other churches—been greatly benefited, by the meetings.

Will Own The Farm.

A farmer in a nearby county while in a generous frame of mind gave his daughter a hen and a rooster and bade her run away and be a good girl, promising her if she would look after them he would give her the increase for four years. The girl, as it were, planted the chicks and the results, according to her father's report, is astonishing. He says she has $64 in the bank and has 200 chickens which he had to feed last winter. According to the farmer's best calculations his girl will own the farm at the end of four years and will be charging him rent for living on it.

Large Mule Market.

A special from Elizabethtown says: "The sale and shipment of mules for 1907-08 have begun. Five carloads were shipped last week and three carloads will go Friday. Rod Warfield sold two carloads Friday to H Russell of Atlanta, Ga, and R B Park made the best sale of the season Saturday, when he sold 100 head of cotton mules to the same purchaser for $16,000. The mule feeders of this city and Hardin county now have a large number of mules on hand which are ready for the market. About 3,000 head of mules were sold out of this city and county last year, and while the number this year is not as large as last, the quality of the mules are better."

Sunday School Rally.

An interesting Rally of the Christian Sunday Schools of Garrard county will be held in the Lancaster Christian Church, Tuesday, January 21st. The sessions will be held at 10:00 A M and 1:30 P M under the direction of Robt M Hopkins, of Louisville, state evangelist. No set speeches will be made, but discussions are to be had on vital Sunday School topics that are uppermost in the enthusiastic forward movement which the Sunday School is now making everywhere. All superintendents, officers, teachers and interested workers are urged to attend this Rally.

Examinations.

The examination for graduates from the public schools will be held at the office of the County Superintendent's on Friday and Saturday, Jan 24 and 25th.

Burning Money.

The extravagant use of money on calendars was practiced again this winter, nearly every business house spending many good dollars for trash which they could have used in a profitable way in advertising their business. Unless a business man has a very hand some and expensive calendar, it is never hung in the homes, but is cast aside. Last week, we saw on the counter of one store four calendars issued by as many business men in town. One had been partly whittled away, another had been scribbled over with a pen while a third had its back torn off to be used for another purpose. Thus, expensive printed matter was being thrown away. Progressive business houses have special bargains every few weeks during the year, and they advertise the fact in the columns of the newspapers—the place housekeepers and other customers look to find what is being offered. Take a glance at the columns of The Record's advertising columns and you will see how the merchants and bankers talk. It is needless to say that they want your business, and the fact that the working of their advertisements is changed every few weeks shows they are wide awake, want your business and appreciate your patronage. The Record has never yet begged or insisted upon anyone giving it patronage, but it feels duty-bound to say to those merchants who waste their good money on calendars, fence posts, fans, programs, etc., that they are throwing their money to the birds. Be progressive by having a special sale on some special line of goods every few weeks, and then tell the people what you are offering. In this way, customers form the habit of visiting your store and, of course, become your regular patrons. Can you go around and do this on your calendar for which you paid a big price forst of the year? We think not, but your money set apart for "advertising" has been blown in, and you are simply not in it with the progressing merchant whose name appears in every issue of the Central Record which goes into nearly every home in Lancaster and Garrard county. Think this over.

Lost Dogs.

Two black and tan dogs, one wearing E H Walker's collar and one with that of T C Lear, of Brodhead. Also two spotted bitches, one with collar of E H Walker and one with collar of Woods Walker. They disappeared Jan 2 in cedars at Gooch place. I will not only be thankful for information, but will come after the dogs and pay liberal reward. Woods Walker, Paint Lick, Ky. Phone 152X. If

CENTRAL RECORD

ISSUED WEEKLY. $1.00 A YEAR.
LOUIS LANDRAM, Edr.-Pubr.
Member Ky. Press Association.
Lancaster, Ky., January 17, 1908.

When a woman doesn't know what to do next she has a choice of two things—comb her back hair or see if the back of her skirt is hooked. But a man can do one or all of many things—look at his watch, scratch his head, spit at something, put his hands in and out of his pocket, button and unbutton his coat, whistle or take a fresh chew of tobacco.

The Earlington Bee says some erratic writer, evidently afflicted with incipient softening of the brain, figures that any woman should be able to dress nicely on thirty-six dollars a year. He was possibly speaking of the Igorrote women. Thirty-six dollars would buy a lot of bandana handkerchiefs and glass beads.

In Denmark it is the law that all drunken persons shall be taken to their homes in carriages provided at the expense of the publican who sold them the last glass. If the law would only require the bar-keep to send around an eye-opener the next morning, it would be hailed with delight by the poor devil who got the carriage ride.

The Louisville Times, of Saturday, covered itself all over with glory by the splendid industrial issue sent out. The paper was almost as large as Barnum's circus tent, and chock full with interesting reading matter. The edition was a great credit to the able management of the paper.

Editor Tom Pickles, of the Richmond Register, is going to hold another contest among the young ladies of Madison for a trip abroad. It's a pretty big undertaking, but Tom is equal to the occasion, and the plan will be a great success.

Some day ("Ye know not the day nor the hour") there is going to be a big fire in which the city newspaper reporters do not report the flames as a "seething mass," and in which the victims will not be caught "like rats in a trap."

"In quickness and dexterity of the hands, women are far more valuable than men," says one who has investigated. True enough, and when it comes to the tongue, the men simply do not enter the contest.

"In three faces out of five the eyes are out of alignment," says a learned professor. Well, if this wave of prohibition continues over the land, the optics will soon resume normal conditions.

The dying request of a Salt Lake woman was that she be buried in her furs. A palm-leaf fan would be a more appropriate request for most of us.

Sausage must be meat, rules a Michigan judge. If the law is carried out to the letter, it will be a dog-gone good idea.

It Does The Business.
Mr E E Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at R E McRoberts drug store. 1m

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Cures Coughs, Whooping Coughs, Sore Throats, etc.

Merit Will Win.
Courier Journal:—Robert E Hughes will resign to day as secretary of the Commercial Club to become the president of the Kentucky Electric Company, succeeding Donald McDonald. A T Macdonald, the present Industrial Commissioner of the club, and acting secretary of the organization during Mr Hughes' long illness, will be elected secretary of the Commercial Club. Mr Hughes will be elected secretary of the Commercial Club. Mr Hughes will be elected president of Kentucky Electric Company at the annual meeting of the company's stockholders this morning. Donald McDonald has been the president of the lighting company since the work of construction began, and now that it has been completed he is retiring because his duties as president of the Kentucky Heating Company amount of attention to the new company. Mr McDonald, having been identified with the older company for a number of years, decided to remain with it when the duties of both made it necessary for him to resign from one or the other.

The sentiment of the Commercial Club directors is that while the club feels much regret at the loss of such a "wheel horse" as Mr Hughes, it is particularly fortunate in having so competent a man as Mr Macdonald at once available for the place, and who can take up the work and carry it along as ably and efficiently as Mr Hughes.

Mr Hughes came to Louisville ten years ago from Lancaster, Ky, where he had been engaged in the newspaper business. His first connection in Louisville was with the old Louisville Commercial as city editor. He filled this position about two years and was then made managing editor for a while, coming from the Commercial to the Courier-Journal.

He was on the staff of the Courier-Journal until in 1903, when he resigned to accept the Secretaryship of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, a voluntary organization formed to prepare an exhibit for the St Louis World's Fair.

When the Exhibit Association was merged into Kentucky Commission, he continued as secretary and was in charge of the work of collecting and installing the various exhibits of the State and the erection of the State building. This work involved the expenditure of something like $112,000 and involved a vast amount of detail, and the splendid executive ability shown by Mr Hughes in the management of this business won general commendation and established him as a man of unusual executive ability.

He is a man of exhaustless energy, who has the unusual quality of mastering details, while at the same time keeping a strong grasp on general policies. He is unusually resourceful, and in this respect has been tried in many directions and has always stood the test. He is just the kind of a man to handle successfully the multitudinous details incident to the launching of a new business. His friends say he has never been known to have as much work as he could handle or even enough to get him the least bit rattled.

After his work with the St Louis Fair was finished Mr Hughes became secretary of the Commercial Club, and under his administration the club has had some of the most prosperous years in its history. During this time it has undertaken Home-coming Week, the Greater Louisville Exposition and other large enterprises, and involving a great deal of labor, which fell largely on Mr Hughes and was handled with his usual ability and success. During the past year he was also secretary of the Kentucky State Fair, and in the preparation for the last fair, which was attended with unusual difficulties, he again demonstrated his energy and grasp of detail.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Kentucky Electric Company to day the following directors are to be chosen: Lawrence Jones, Louis Seelbach, R Baylor Hickman, James A Shuttleworth, Fred Levy, James Kirway, Donald McDonald, Charles J Doherty, William Doherty, John Sharps, Robert E Hughes.

The officers of the company will be elected as follows: President, R E Hughes; vice president, Lawrence Jones; secretary, Byron Allen.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for Coffee. Gill & Simpson.

Where the sermon is only a work of art the saints are usually artificial.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountain shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub, which the doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Always demand Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. R E McRoberts

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says, "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store.

You had better arrange about your subscriptions to the newspapers before the new Law goes into effect. It may save you a fine in the United States Court.

There is no other stuff raised on the farm quite so good for colts and calves as nice bright oats. Colts nibble at oats quicker than anything else, and it keeps them growing.

Rod Warfield, of Elizabethtown, bought thirty head of 4 year old hules from Green Bros at Falls of Rough at about $130 per head.

Two hundred and twenty-two hogs averaging 225 lbs, were sold by a farmer near Greensfork, Wayne county, one day last week. They were Poland Chinas, and brought the top of the market.

There is a surplus of apples reported in cold and common storage in New York state, perhaps as many as 2,000,000 barrels; at the same time there is a remarkably large orange crop both in Florida and California, besides Porto Rico has a large quantity to export to the United States, some 14,000,000 boxes in all.

Some mule buyers have arrived in Columbia, Tenn, and have purchased a large number of mules at high prices and it is thought that the present present slight activity in the mule market there will mean a bright outlook for a heavy demand in the near future.

Examine the wheat in granary for weevil. This has been a mild winter thus far, and rather damp at times, and it is likely that this insect has got in his work in many places. In some sections in Kansas they are very prevalent. For maldehyde is the remedy. Pour a little on plates set around in the granary and it will send its poison fumes down through the grain, and destroy the pests.

An experienced farmer says: "In the fall bore an inch hole down into the center of the stump 14 or 16 inches deep. Put a couple of ounces of salt peter into this hole, fill with water, and plug up tight. In the spring take out the plug, pour into the hole about half a gill of kerosene oil, and light it. The stump will burn away slowly with out blazing, to the ends of the roots, leaving nothing but ashes." The nitrogen in the salt peter will penetrate into the roots during the winter, and the wood dissolves into ashes. The ashes will be worth as much as fertilizer as the salt peter and oil will cost.

NEW UNITED STATES LAW

A ruling by the Post Office Department, at Washington, has just been made, which will work a great hardship on newspaper publishers and subscribers alike. It denies publishers the privilege of sending their papers through the mails after any subscriber's time has expired. In other words if your subscription expired with this issue of The Record and we should mail you a copy next week, both you and the editor of The Record are subject to fine. It is an outrageous law and should be set aside. If we want to send our paper to anyone, it's our business and no one has any say so, it seems to us, but Uncle Sam says not so. It means that publishers must go over their hundreds of names each week—a task requiring the best part of a day. There's but one thing to do, and that is for you and The Record to keep posted as to how we stand. Some people may think this is written as a bluff, but if you are of this opinion, ask your post master.

POSTED

The undersigned hereby give warning to all persons not to trespass upon our lands for any purpose whatever, as we will prosecute all offenders to fullest extent of the law. Hunters and Fishermen especially take notice.

NOT LOVE, BUT—

Edith's Papa—And so you love my daughter? Edith's Admirer—I do, indeed, sir; I cannot tell you how much I love her. Do you know what it is to see a single face everywhere, to hear a single voice ever sounding in your ears, to be possessed by the one idea, to feel all the time that the one presence is before you, to—

Edith's Papa—No, young man, I have never had any of those feelings since I signed the pledge.

Colored Views.

"I tell you for a modern business man, Black is white." "That's because he's green yet." "I don't agree with either of you. I found him rather blue this morning." "Oh, that was on account of a personal reason. He is sensitive about turning gray so soon."—Baltimore American.

Looking for the Strings.

Smart Girl—Mr. Nicellow, this is my little sister, Miss Ella. What do you wish, pet? Why are you regarding the gentleman so intently? Little Sister—I was looking for the strings, that's all. "Strings? What strings?" "Why, mamma said you had two strings to your bean."—N. Y. Weekly.

SILLIMAN INSTITUTE.

Work This College Is Doing for the Natives of Philippines.

H. B. SILLIMAN. Mindanao are clearly in view, and others lie just over the horizon. It was for this reason, and to keep the school away from the dangers of city life, that the town of Dumaguete on the island of Negros was chosen with its background of high mountains, and the Pacific only a stone's throw from the school door. It is in the center of the Visayan tribe of over 3,000,000 and within easy reach of them all. The site seems not to have been chosen amiss, for the people have taken the work of the school seriously from the start and have supported it loyally. The school, which is under the care of the foreign board of the Presbyterian church, was opened formally with 13 pupils, and in the five years of its existence has grown to 260. It would have been 300 if it had not been crowded to overflowing during the present year. These students come from all the larger islands of the archipelago, and are boys of enthusiasm and ability, for the most part from the Roman Catholic church, and yet too anxious for an education to allow this to stand in the way. It is the oldest of the Protestant Christian schools in the islands and the only one where rich and poor are brought together on terms of perfect equality, and given either a classical course or an industrial training.

It is a burning truth in the islands that knowledge is power; a boy goes home from the school here and can be a leader—a power almost from the start. In America it means a little of the same thing, but here it means power—leadership. An educated, strong man, today, will move a whole community. The old Spanish system of education is as far out of date as a 40-year-old atlas. The new ideas of education, freedom and religion possess the heart and thought of the Filipino, says Dr. S. Hubbard in Record of Christian Work, and cannot be repressed. It is for the guidance of these that Silliman Institute stands—against superstition, injustice, slavery and ignorance. A careful study of the Bible as a text book is required of every student.
